

Kids Rule The Globe (With GIS): Kentucky K-12 GIS Initiatives

KAMP Meeting – Friday, November 9th, 2007 – 10:00am – 2:00pm

Clark County Extension Service
Cooperative Extension Building
1400 Fortune Drive
Winchester, Kentucky

10:00am – 10:45am

Carol D. Hanley – Tracey Farmer Center for the Environment, Director

Ms. Hanley will give a brief overview of the efforts of the Tracey Farmer Center to foster GIS awareness in Environmental Education in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. She will discuss the recent National Science Foundation Grant awarded to the Tracey Farmer Center.

10:45am – 11:30am

Shannon Gilkey – Doss High School, GIS Magnet Program, GIS Instructor

Mr. Gilkey will give a brief overview on the history of the Jefferson County Public Schools' Secondary GIS Education Program. He will discuss the program, curriculum, and goals of the Doss High School GIS Program.

11:30am – NOON

Lunch

Lunch Provided by Fuller, Mossberger, Scott, and May Engineers, Inc. (FMSM)

NOON – 1PM

Ben Koostra – University of Kentucky, College of Agriculture, Engineering Specialist
Greg Henson – McLean County, 4-H Agent
Heather Cassill – Clark County, 4-H Agent
Diane Kelley – Scott County, 4-H Agent

Panel Discussion on the GIS/GPS Program Area of the University of Kentucky's Cooperative Extension Service, Science, Engineering, and Technology Youth Development Program (4-H SET Program). Panelists will introduce the 4-H SET Program, and share successes and challenges facing 4-H agents and members in the future.

1pm – 2pm

KAMP Business Meeting

KAMP Business Meeting --- Open to all KAMP Members